

Latham Family Collection

Latham Family Collection, 1887-2008, undated (bulk 1887-1888)

1 box (0.2 linear feet)

Andrew Jackson Latham, his wife, and other family members and friends immigrated to Texas from South Carolina in the late 1880s. (Other family members immigrated later.) The A.J. Lathams bought land and built a farm in East Texas and a portion of this land remains in the Latham family today. The collection contains insightful, personal correspondence between family and friends separated by great distances.

Contents of files include family letters, a bound family history, and additional contextual documents of interest. Approximate date range is 1887-2008, with some material undated.

Gift, 2019.

Finding aid available.

AR